

HVS U.S. Lodging Tax Report

📅 October 20, 2020 / 👤 By Thomas A. Hazinski

This study examines the current status and historical trends of lodging taxes and policy trends in the US and analyzes lodging tax rates and revenues across a broad range of US cities. It includes lodging tax rates/collections on 150 US cities and all 50 US states.

- 2020 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2019 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2018 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2017 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2016 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2015 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2014 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA
- 2013 HVS Lodging Tax Report - USA

Summary

This study examines the current status and historical trends of lodging taxes and policy trends in the US and analyzes lodging tax rates and revenues across a broad range of US cities. It includes lodging tax rates/collections on 150 US cities and all 50 US states.

🗨️ Comments

About Thomas A. Hazinski

Thomas Hazinski, MPP is the Managing Director of HVS Convention, Sports, & Entertainment Facilities Consulting in Chicago, Illinois. His consulting practice is dedicated to the market and financial analysis of public assembly facilities. Mr. Hazinski has over 30 years of experience as both a public official and a consultant. He specializes in providing economic and financial research to public agencies and private developers involved in economic development initiatives. Mr. Hazinski holds a master's degree in public policy from the University of Chicago's Harris School of Public Policy. He is currently serving as an adjunct professor at the Harris School and teaching a graduate degree course in State and Local Government Finance. Contact Tom at [\[email protected\]](#).

FILED UNDER CATEGORIES

Property Tax

North America

United States