

Visitation Growth & Key Tourism Drivers in the MEA Region

October 30, 2024 / By Hala Matar Choufany

Tune in to Hala Matar Choufany's interview with Maya Hojeij on Bloomberg Alsharq discussing visitation growth and key tourism drivers in the region:

- International visitation has been staggering growth in 2024 and is expected to continue across the mid to long term;
- Investments in tourism infrastructure, notably airports and airlines, continue to play a key role in enhancing visitation growth and tourism appeal;
- Morocco, Egypt and Saudi offer good investment opportunities supported by government plans and major upcoming international events;
- Project delays and cancellations are not uncommon in emerging destinations and quantifying actual supply is important for accurate feasibility studies.

Summary

Hala Matar Choufany shares her insights on Bloomberg Alsharq with Maya Hojeij, discussing key drivers behind the region's impressive visitation growth and tourism expansion.
